ENCLOSURE 9

The bulk of reported crime is still committed in town centre, but an increase in the area of Kenilworth Common. In August there have been reports of numerous unidentified youths, believed to be male, causing nuisance and criminal damage on Warwick Road and at Abbey End from at 00.30 onwards.

A public 'Walk With Us' event around Kenilworth was held by local police on Thursday 27th August, exclusively for women and girls. This was attended by Cllr Alison Insley.

A public 'Meet the Team' event open to all Kenilworth Residents will be held by the Kenilworth Safer Neighbourhood Team on Wednesday 30th September 2026 5:00pm – 7:00pm Jubilee House, Smalley Place, Kenilworth, CV8 1QG

The three County Councillors for Kenilworth have agreed to submit a joint grant bid in September to the WCC Crime Awareness & Prevention Programme fund to help combat youth ant-social behaviour and misogyny.
